Spoken Call to Worship		Rev. Dr. Luther Felder

Leader: Christ proclaims good news to the poor, binds up the broken-hearted, frees the prisoners, and comforts those who mourn.

People: We come to worship Christ

Leader: He bestows a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair

ALL: We come to worship Christ, who rebuilds lives and restores joy in broken places.

Assisting in Worship Today is Rev. Dr. Luther Felder

Reverend Dr. Luther B. Felder, II, the son and grandson of Texas Methodist preachers, currently serves as the Campus Pastor at Paine College in Augusta, Georgia. He is a graduate of Wiley College, in Marshall, Texas, where he received a BA degree. His academic pursuits continued at Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School, Rochester, New York, where he was awarded the MDiv. Reverend Felder later studied at Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, in Dallas, Texas, where he earned a Doctor of Ministry degree.

Rev. Dr. Felder is an ordained United Methodist minister who has served the church as a pastor of local congregations and campus ministries. Prior to his current appointment at Paine College, he served for nine years as head of campus ministry for the United Methodist Church and as Associate Dean of the Chapel and Religious Life at Emory University.

In his current role, Dr. Felder serves as Assistant Professor of Religion and Campus Pastor. His pastoral duties include overseeing the spiritual life of the Paine College Community through worship services, ceremonial celebrations, convocations and weekly assembly programs. In addition to these duties, he provides academic enrichment to the Paine college student community regarding contemporary and historical religious practices of faith communities across the world.

Rev. Dr. Felder serves on the Board of the UNITED WAY of the CSRA, and the INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF METHODIST SCHOOLS COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES.

He received the Frances Asbury Award for his work in higher education, at the June 2022 session of the North Georgia Annual Conference.

He retired as the senior pastor of St. Luke United Methodist Church in the Harrisburg community of Augusta, Georgia in the summer of 2021. He served there for 11 years.
