To Know Christ and Make Christ Known

Service of Worship

8:30 & 11:00am

We Gather to Celebrate

Prelude (8:30)		Nick Lowery
Prelude (11:00)	Praise to the Lord the Almighty	Sophie Pollock, Kevin Pollock & Strings
Call to Worship	Worthy of Worship	Kevin Pollock
Welcome Home		Charles Knox
Spoken Call to Worship		Charles Knox

Leader: How lovely is Your dwelling place, O Lord of hosts! My soul longs, yes, faints for the courts of the Lord. My heart and flesh sing for joy to the living God.

People: Blessed are those who dwell in Your house, ever singing Your praise! Blessed are those whose strength is in you, in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

Leader: A day in Your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

ALL: For the Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord bestows favor and honor. No good thing does He withhold from those who walk uprightly. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the one who trusts in You!.

Welcome, Jim Salley!

President/CEO, Africa University (Tennessee) Inc. & Associate Vice Chancellor for Institutional Advancement, Africa University

Elected President and Chief Executive Officer of Africa University (Tennessee) Incorporated in October 2021, James Salley has led friend-making and fundraising efforts in support of the ministry of Africa University for three decades. AU Tennessee is the parent corporation of AU Zimbabwe and raises, holds, invests, and distributes funds to AU Zimbabwe with accountability.

His association with Africa University began in the mid-1980s. While serving as a director on the General Board of Global Ministries, Salley was a member of the site selection committee that determined where Africa University would be located. In 1988, he was elected to serve a three-year term on the Board of Directors of Africa University and is one of its original founders.

Salley is also the Associate Vice Chancellor for Institutional Advancement for Africa University. With 40 years of higher education administration experience and offices both in Nashville, and the university site in Old Mutare, Zimbabwe, Salley has helped individual and corporate donors, local churches, annual conferences, and general agencies of the United Methodist Church connection understand the mission and needs of the "School of Dreams". Jim serves as the chief advancement officer and fundraiser for the institution; he oversees the University's institutional advancement program; and is responsible for interpreting the programs of the University to local churches, organizations, and agencies throughout the United Methodist connection and beyond.

Salley is a native of Orangeburg, South Carolina. He is a member of Edisto Fork United Methodist Church and formerly served as the church Lay Leader and President of the United Methodist Men. He also serves as the Lay Member to the Annual Conference and is a certified Lay Servant.
