Make me a re-producer in light of The Great Commission

Jesus' final command to his disciples was to spread the Gospel, make disciples of all nations, baptize them, and teach them to obey His commands.

Inductive Bible Study

H.E.A.R. Method

HIGHLIGHT

Select one or two verses that stand out and speak to you and include:

- The name of the book
- The passage of Scripture
- The chapter and verse numbers
- A title to describe the passage

EXPLAIN

Answer the questions:

- Why was this written?
- To whom was it originally written?
- How does it fit with the verses before and after it?
- Why did the Holy Spirit include this passage?

APPLY

Answer the questions:

- What would the application of this verse look like in my life?
- What does this mean to me?
- What is God saying to me?

RESPOND

- Write a call to action
- Describe how you will be different
- Tell what you are going to do
- Write out a prayer

Tips for Memorizing Scripture

- Site the number; say the verse and then site the number again – that way you will always know the number for a verse and can recall when needed.
- Choose a modern translation such as NIV. Avoid paraphrases like The Living Bible and The Message.
- Read the passage several times to understand its full meaning. Ask the Holy Spirit for clarity and application.
- Begin committing the passage to memory one verse at a time.
- List the verbs from the passage. Memorize them in order – then add the other words to them.
- In narrative passages, visualize the sequence of events in the story.
- Carry scripture memory cards with you for additional study and frequent review (in the car, etc.)
- Strive for word exact memorization so you do not change the meaning God has created through enlightened writings and scholarly translations.
- Practice reciting your passage to a friend.
- Write out the verse in short phrases.
- Begin by memorizing the first two or three words and then build on that.
- Try memorizing the verse in word groups – four, etc.
- Learn songs with scripture in them. It becomes easy to memorize. Hymnals have lots of scriptures in them.
- Use physical movements to help remember – hand, heart, mind, etc.
- Try scripture art – meditate on the scriptures and memorize it while you draw and write the words.
- Tell yourself you can do scripture memory – make it a positive activity!
