This Week's Word

Hebrews 1 - 7

The book of Hebrews is an anonymous letter written to Jewish believers who were facing persecution and considering returning to Judaism. The writer argues that Jesus Christ is completely supreme and superior to all previous prophets, angels, and Levitical priests. The letter urges believers to hold fast to their faith in Jesus because He established a better covenant and is a superior, final sacrifice.

Chapter Highlights (1–7)

Hebrews 1: God has spoken finally through His Son, who is far superior to the angels.

Hebrews 2: Jesus shared in our human nature to become our merciful and faithful Savior.

Hebrews 3: Jesus is proven greater and more worthy of honor than Moses.

Hebrews 4: Believers are invited to enter God's promised spiritual rest through faith.

Hebrews 5: Jesus is introduced as a compassionate high priest appointed by God.

Hebrews 6: the writer strongly encourages his audience to grow spiritually mature and hold fast to hope.

Hebrews 7: Jesus holds an eternal priesthood superior to the old Levitical system, in the order of Melchizedek.
