TRINITY
ON THE HILL

This Week's Word

Mark Chapter 10 Jesus delivers challenging teachings regarding marriage, wealth, and status, emphasizing that entering the kingdom requires the humility of a child. After predicting His suffering for a third time, Jesus corrects the ambitious requests of James and John by stating that the Son of Man came to serve and give His life as a ransom.

Mark Chapter 11 Jesus enters Jerusalem to the praises of a cheering crowd before driving out the corrupt merchants from the temple complex the following day. Using a withered fig tree to teach His disciples about faith and prayer, Jesus later faces down the chief priests who demand to know the source of His authority.

Mark Chapter 12 Jesus tells the parable of the wicked tenants to condemn the religious elite, then masterfully evades their deceptive traps regarding taxes and the resurrection. Jesus identifies loving God and loving one's neighbor as the supreme commandments and praises a poor widow for giving everything she had to the temple.

Mark Chapter 13 Looking ahead to the future, Jesus warns His disciples about the impending destruction of the temple, rising false messiahs, and coming global tribulations. Jesus describes the cosmic signs that will accompany the return of the Son of Man, urging His followers to stay alert and watchful because no one knows the exact day or hour.

Mark Chapter 14 Judas conspires with the chief priests to betray Jesus, who later shares the Passover meal with His disciples and institutes the Lord's Supper. Following an agonizing prayer in Gethsemane, Jesus is arrested, abandoned by His disciples, falsely condemned by the Sanhedrin, and denied three times by Peter.

Mark Chapter 15 Jesus stands silent before Pontius Pilate, who succumbs to the pressure of the rioting crowd and sentences Him to be scourged and crucified. Mocked and nailed to a cross, Jesus dies amid darkness as the temple curtain tears in two, after which Joseph of Arimathea secures His body for burial.

Mark Chapter 16 On the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and other women find the tomb stone rolled away and an angel proclaiming that Jesus has risen. The resurrected Jesus appears to His disciples, commands them to preach the gospel to all creation, and ascends to heaven to sit at the right hand of God.

This Week's Reflections

What is God saying? How will I respond?